

Princess Royale

On a terraformed world in the far future, a high-school student survives a brush with death, and finds himself forced to compete as a girl a Gun Princess in a brutal tournament known as the Princess Royale, where the stakes are high and victory is achieved through the barrel of a gun. After enduring a long week at Telos Academy, first year high-school student, Ronin Kassius, chose to burn off stress by engaging in zombie killing in his favorite arcade game. However, he never expected his life to change in such a dramatic fashion on an afternoon much like any other. On the way home to his student apartment, Ronin witnesses a strange phenomena sweep through Ar Telica, the coastal city he lives in, and finds himself alone in a city suddenly dead and deserted. There he encounters a mysterious doll-like girl, and experiences his apparent death. Attending school the following week, he chooses to believe it was a dream until hes contacted by an individual calling himself a Maestro who reveals that Ronin died when he was scooped up into the Sliver, a copy of his reality transplanted into a realm known as Decaying Space. Gifted with a temporary body while his remains are preserved for regeneration by his unknown benefactor, Ronin learns that to get it back he has to fight in the Princess Royale, a spectator sport the public believes is a virtual reality tournament but is actually brutal combat fought out in the Slivers serving as arenas. However he wont be doing so as a man, but as a girl, a Gun Princess by the name of Mercedes, and a special existence that can survive in the Sliver and Decaying Space. With his Maestro nicknamed Jive as a guide, instructor, tormentor, and confidant, Ronin must learn to master Mercedes and compete with other Gun Princesses for the title of Gun Queen or he may never get his real body back.
